Mrs. Alec Tweedy,
Devonshire House,
Piccadilly, London, W.

Dear Mrs. Tweedy,

Thank you very much indeed for your most thoughtful visit, and for the jelly and eggs. Both were very much appreciated.

I am very much better to-day, and hope to be able to go to Germany to-morrow evening.

Everything, I am thankful to say, is going very well here, although we have not had much prominence in the press recently.

I think we will be broadcasting within the next few weeks - in time to give a demonstration at your Moonlight Party, but I would want to make sure of this before saying definitely that it can be done. I will know within the next ten days.

With best wishes,

Yours very sincerely

John L. Baird
